Identifying and Analyzing Tension

Prompt: How does the author build tension in the book? In the boxes below, write one moment where tension is built within the characters, setting, and events of the book. Include page numbers as citations. Then go on to write an analysis.

Characters	Setting	Events
Quote:          Impact:	Quote:          Impact:	Quote:          Impact

Write your analysis: Choose one of the categories above (characters, setting, or events) and write an analysis paragraph examining in detail a time of tension in this book. Include a claim, textual evidence and citation, and reasoning.

Exit Ticket

Based on your understanding of Reconstruction and the Dunning and Revisionist Schools, discuss which point of view is the most believable (examine the authors' claims, reasoning, and evidence). If possible, challenge the claims, reasoning, and evidence with other information.
